A preliminary meeting of the friends of temperance favorable to political action was held yesterday evening, at the northeast corner of Ninth and Spring Garden streets. R. M. Foust was called to the chair, and I. Newton Pierce elected secretary. The object of the meeting was explained by Mr. Pierce, who stated that the late action of both the popular political parties in nominating for prominent official posi-tions men who were actively engaged in the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors was repugnant to the moral sense of the community. and the true and consistent temperance men could not vote for such. Hence it seems perative upon us to select other candidates. further, as the temperance people throughout the country appear to be moving towards the formation of an independent prohibitory party, we should be prepared to meet this movement, and give it proper encouragement.

Mr. Pierce, on behalf of the committee, then offered the following, which were unanimously adopted:-Whereas, The citizens of a republican government have a just right to claim protection from social evils and vices as well as individual crimes; and at least three-fourths of all the rime, misery, and suffering now debasing, degrading, and destroying our race are caused by the sale and use of intoxicating drinks; and whereas, the present political parties not only gnore these facts, but, in the face of them pander to the wishes of the rumsellers and yield the dictates of the rum power, and heed not the untold sufferings of thousands of innocent wives, mothers, and helpless children who call loudly for help, for relief, for protection, as well as the enormous expense and taxation arising directly from the enormous evil of intemperance so rapidly increasing; and whereas, all other great political issues heretofore before the American people are now settled, and there never was a more auspicious moment, and may never again occur in our nation's history so propitions a time for the gathering of the tem-

just God has given them for the overthrow of this giant evil; therefore, Resolved, That we will unite all our power and influence in the establishment of an independent temperance political party, whose object shall be the enactment and rigid enforcement of stringent prohibitory laws against the manufacture and sale, or giving to others as a beverage, any liquors that can intoxicate.

perance hosts to unite and exercise all the rights

Resolved, That the present political parties by a portion of their late nominations have for-feited all the respect and confidence of moral and intelligent citizens, and have clearly shown that they consider rumsellers and distillers to be among the most worthy of our suffrage, which we most emphatically repudiate and deny, believing that no man should be nominated for any office in the gift of the people-much less receive our votes-who is not a tectotaler and who is not only opposed to the traffic in intoxi cating drinks, but is in favor of stringent probibition.

Resolved, That we will wait no longer on the present political parties to recognize prohibi-tion, but will at once take measures to form a distinct temperance party, believing, as there is a just God in Heaven, we must and will ulti-mately triumph, and in Him we put our trust. Resolved, That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting as a Committee of Arrangements for the calling a city convention, for the purpose of perfecting the organization in this city of a temperance party, said commit-tee to issue a call and fix the time and place for holding said convention, and make all other necessary arrangements. Resolved. That we elect ten delegates to repreent us in the great National Temperance Political Convention, to be held at Chicago, September 1, 1869, and that these delegates be furnished with credentials properly signed by the officers of this meeting.

The following were chosen delegates to the National Convention, to be held at Chicago, September 1, 1869:—R. M. Foust, I. Newton Pierce, Edwin H. Coates, Edwin Booth, George Gable, Samuel D. Mansfield, John Shedden, N. M. Pratt, George H. Hick, and John Shallcross. The meeting adjourned to meet again in Effective Lodge Hall, on July 22, 1869.

Smith remarked that the lands of Aubrey Smith, adicining, cannot be bought for less than $250 an acre, and all the grounds adjacent are of equal value. In the opinion of the speaker, the ground of Mr. Hill, rejected by Councils, was the most available property yet offered; but, having rejected that, the speaker looked upon the Alburger farm as the best that the city could obtain.

Mr. Cattell pronounced the price of the property as too high. There is a great deal of low ground with it, and it really isn't suitable for the purpose with it, and it really isn't saitable for the purpose. It would be a great expense to keep up the banks along the creek; transportation to the locality is expensive; there is really nothing to recommend it for the purpose proposed. Mr. Gattell vehemently opposed the proposed purchase.

Mr. Kerr, one of the committee, said that he visited the property prejudiced against it. He returned from his visit convinced that of the ten properties offered for the purpose, this property, at the price, was much the best yet offered.

Mr. McIlvain expressed the belief that at $175. Mr. McIlvain expressed the belief that at $175 per acre this property was very desirable. It was upon Darby creek, a navigable stream, by which

The ground includes at least 180 acres of upland, and it is a mistake that any considerable quantity of it is liable to overflow, or consists of marsh. The ice-house attached to the mansion is sixteen feet deep, and as dry as any other in the city. The property Mr. Mclivain considered in all respects desirable.

NEW GOLDEN EAGLE FURNACE. would call the attention of the public to his NEW GOLDEN EAGLE FURNACE.

This is an entirely new heater. It is so constructed as to once commend itself to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast iron. It is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly air-tight; self-cleaning, having no pipes or drums to be taken out and cleaned. It is so arranged with upright flues as to produce a larger amount of heat from the same weight of coal than any furnace now in use. The hygrometric condition of the air as produced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at once demonstrate that it is the only Hot Air Furnace that will produce a perfectly healthy atmosphere.

Those in want of a complete Heating Apparatus would do well to call and examine the Golden Eagle.
